

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS, RESEARCH AND QUALITY ASSURANCE UNIT

POSITION: HEAD OF ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT (HOD), GRADE: PHX

All Heads of Academic Departments (HOD) positions below are for a 5 (five) year fixed term contract. These are joint appointments with the Universities.

 UNIVERSITY OF LIMPOPO/ TURFLOOP	(REF: LMUL – 61004.001.1807- HAEMATOLOGY) (REF: LMUL – 61001.001.1807 - CHEMPATH) (REF: LMUL – 61002.001.1807- ANATPATH)
 UNIVERSITY OF FREE STATE/ UNIVERSITAS ACADEMIC COMPLEX	(REF: UFS – 31101.001.1807- CHEMPATH) (REF: UFS – 31102.001.1807- ANATPATH) (REF: UFS – 31108.001.1807- VIROLOGY) (REF: UFS – 31104.001.1807- HAEMATOLOGY)
 TSHWANE ACADEMIC DIVISION (TAD)/UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA	(REF: GPTAD – 45106.001.1807- MICROBIOLOGY)

MAIN PURPOSE OF THE JOB

To create the vision for the department and provide leadership to foster excellence and harmonious delivery of University and NHLS teaching, research and service mandates including the assimilation, evaluation and translation of knowledge into minimum quality standards for the discipline. To ensure that the investigation and diagnosis of disease within the discipline is conducted in accordance with current “best practice” throughout the organisation.

KEY JOB RESPONSIBILITY

- Formulates strategy and/or oversees and monitors the implementation of strategy.
- Active leadership within the NHLS/ University/Professional bodies promoting discipline and/or organisational strategic objectives at a regional or national level.
- Improve responsiveness of NHLS to healthcare needs in the community/society, through for example development of/active and substantial contribution to training programmes or changes in service delivery/testing practices.
- Involvement in regional /national or international teaching activities
- Involvement in/contribution to curriculum Revision at a national level.
- Leads an academic division/ department or a group of laboratories and initiates strategy.
- Active involvement with and contribution to the implementation/ development of diagnostic and interpretative techniques/ procedures/algorithms / strategies at a national/international level.
- Drive the strategic revision of quality systems and ensures ongoing compliance with SANAS requirements.
- Training and formal supervision of postgraduate students –including Registrars, Scientists and Medical Technologists; identification of strategic training needs, development of strategic training and development plans and capacity building. Responsible for the research, teaching and training within the department and also contribute towards the institutional mandate.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS & KEY COMPETENCY:

- Anatomical Pathology: FCPATH/MMed in Anatomical Pathology; Microbiology: FCPATH/MMed in Microbiology; Haematology: FC Path/MMed in Haematology; Chemical Pathology: FCPATH/MMed in Chemical Pathology OR FCPATH/MMed in Clinical Pathology for Microbiology, Haematology and Chemical Pathology;
- Minimum 7 years’ experience as a pathologist;
- At least 4 years’ laboratory management (research/diagnostic) experience;
- Registration with HPCSA as health professional in the applicable discipline;
- Prior formal involvement in undergraduate and postgraduate teaching at a tertiary academic institution;
- Research experience as demonstrated by authorship of peer-reviewed publications;
- Successfully supervised/co-supervised BSc Hons, MMED, MSc and PhD students;
- Strong leadership, Time management, interpersonal, organisational and presentation skills; and
- Computer literate and good report writing skills ability.

Interested persons who meet the requirements are invited to send their CVs, ID, HPCSA registration and qualification, to Keitumetse Boikanyo via e-mail: Keitumetse.Boikanyo@nhls.ac.za Tel. (011) 386-6096. Please indicate the reference number of the post, name of the post and the specific discipline.

Applicants will be shortlisted in line with the NHLS applicable proficiency matrix for health professionals.

CLOSING DATE: 23 SEPTEMBER 2022